Located eight miles south of Tarragona and six miles south of the Cape of Salou, is the Port of Cambrils, and the Cambrils Marina and Sailing Club. The Club, one of the oldest on the coast, has recently been enlarged and now has 600 moorings of between 8 and 20 metres with all the necessary services and facilities for members and visitors. The Port of Cambrils also has a 6,000 square metre dry dock, a travelift with a capacity of up to 50 metric tons, and workshops with mechanics specializing in all types of repairs. The Marina offers various nautical activities, such as sailing lessons, boat hire and a diving centre.

The beach is, of course, one of the resort's most traditional and popular attractions. Nine kilometres of fine, golden sand are lined by a magnificent new seafront promenade along which you can stroll or cycle, or just sit and have a drink and enjoy the scenery and tranquillity. For the more active, there's a whole range of water sports to participate in. The excellent quality of the beaches is demonstrated year after year by the awarding of the European Blue Flags.

The town is famous throughout Europe for its fish and seafood restaurants, original and exquisite dishes are prepared with the highest quality ingredients, all of local origin, from the land and the sea.

Day-to-day shopping, gifts for friends and family, antiques, accessories for the home, traditional crafts -you'll find it all in the shops of Cambrils, businesses that are open all year round and that play an important part in the economy of the town. Visitors and townspeople alike enjoy shopping on the seafront promenade, in the streets surrounding the port area and in the narrow, typical streets of the historic Old Quarter. Don't forget to visit the two Municipal Markets of Cambrils, one in the Port and another in the Old Quarter. The weekly street market in the Old Quarter is full of stalls where you can find practically anything. And last but not least, the local farm produce, especially the area's star product, our olive oil rated as one of the best in the world. In short, the quality and variety of products on offer to the visitor make shopping in Cambrils an almost irresistible temptation.

Fishing, one of the mainstays of the town's economy, as can be seen in the fishing port, where the visitor can catch a glimpse of times gone by. The daily return of the fishing boats between four and five in the afternoon and the unloading of the catch make a stroll along the docks the best way of enjoying an afternoon surrounded by the atmosphere of a typical fishing village.

COASTAL PATH - CAMI DE RONDA

Sunrise and sunset are our favourite times for a stroll on the Camí de Ronda, the coastal path.

This 2 kilometre path hugs the coast, with the sea a constant companion to your side, from the district of Pílons, in the tourist hub, to Replanells, on Cape Salou. Historically, these paths followed the coastline and were used for sea surveillance and by the fishermen. The complete revamping of this path now makes it possible to stroll along the coast and see sites that were impossible to get to for many years.

The Camí de Ronda winds through stunningly beautiful landscapes. Besides the amazing views, the path passes by beaches and coves, making it a unique way to get to know Cape Salou. From Pílons, the path heads south and goes past Capellans Beach, where you can see the remains of the former quarantine station, which was built in 1829. Next is Llenguadets Cove, where you can see the bunkers built during the Spanish Civil War. The last section takes you past Llarga Beach, a natural setting, now far from the tourist area.

The path reaches a maximum height above sea level of 77 metres, with sections that are a bit difficult, although the majority of the route can be done by everyone.

Cape Salou offers another possibility. Due to its location, you can see sea birds that are difficult to spot from the beach. With a telescope or binoculars, you may catch a glimpse of shearwaters, jaegers, gannets, puffins, razorbills, loons, different migrating birds and sea ducks, such as common and velvet scoters. Different species of gulls can also be spotted, including the Andouin's gull, which is quite abundant and easy to see in the spring and autumn.
